

How do we use cookies?

Dex Premium Lubricants believes your privacy is important. Therefore, we would like to inform you about the use of cookies on this website. Therefore, we would like to inform you about the use of cookies on this website.

We do not use cookies to collect information about you.

We use temporary cookies or session cookies to help you navigate our site, to keep you logged in to our website, or to analyze website traffic patterns with the aim of improving performance and usability.

What is a cookie?

A cookie, also called an HTTP cookie, web cookie or browser cookie, is usually a small piece of data sent from a website and stored in a user's web browser while a user is browsing a website. When the user browses the same website in the future, the data stored in the cookie can be retrieved by the website to inform the website of the user's previous activity.

Want to learn more about cookies? Visit the website www.allaboutcookies.org. This website provides more information about cookies. It also explains how to delete cookies and how to let trusted websites store cookies on your computer.

This website uses different types of cookies.

Necessary cookies

Necessary cookies are required for the website to function. These cookies are essential for the website to work correctly. They include cookies that remember previous actions (e.g. entered text) when returning to a page in the same session. These cookies do not identify you as an individual. If you do not accept the necessary cookies, this may affect the performance of the website or parts of it.

Functionality cookies

Functionality cookies are used to recognize you when you return to the website and to remember the choices you made to enable Dex Premium Lubricants to personalize its content to you. The information the functionality cookies collect may include personally identifiable information that you have disclosed. If you do not accept functionality cookies, it may affect the performance and functionality of the website and may restrict access to its content.

Analytical/Performance cookies

Analytical/performance cookies allow Dex Premium Lubricants to count the number of visitors and help us understand how visitors interact with the website by providing information about, among other things, the sections visited, the time spent on the website and any problems encountered. This helps Dex Premium Lubricants to improve the way the website works. Performance cookies do not identify you as an individual. All data is collected and processed anonymously.

Disable cookies?

There are several options available to prevent the storage of cookies. Visit the websites of the various browsers for information on deleting cookies that are on your device and blocking future cookie storage. You can also visit Cookies & You, which has detailed information on how to do this in a wide variety of browsers. Keep in mind that if you decide to delete all of your cookies, you will likely have to re-enter all of your usernames and passwords on all of the websites you visit, which you didn't even have to think about before. Cookies can be a real asset to your web browsing experience. Moreover, the refusal or deletion of cookies only affects the computer and browser on which you perform the action. If you use multiple computers and/or browsers, you should repeat the action(s) as many times as necessary.

Modification of this Policy

We may change this Policy at any time without notice. You are advised to check this page regularly. Any changes to the Policy will become effective when we make the revised Policy available through the website. If you continue to use the website after such changes, you accept the revised Policy.
